GUEST OF HONOR AT DINNER.

Before his address at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church last night Dr. Booker T. Washington was tendered a complimentary dinner at the residence of Mr. H. Lassiter, 1215 Seventeenth street northwest, by the trustees of the church. It was a very elaborate function, and was meant to express the appreciation of the trustees because of Dr. Washington's satisfactory helpfulness in speaking in the interest of the church and donating the entire proceeds for its benefit. Those present as guests, along with Dr. Washington, were:

Bishop B. W. Arnett, of the A. M. E. Church; Dr. E. W. Lampton, Dr. D. P. Seaton, Rev. E. H. Hunter, Editor E. E. Cooper, H. Lassiter, W. L. Mekerson and Emmett J. Scott, Dr. Washington's private secretary.

The trustees present were: Messrs. John A. Simms, William C. Beckett, John W. Cromwell, J. S. McDuffie, Morris Honesty, B. A. Chase, Clement Dorsey, J. H. Clark, and E. Murray.

The statement that $25 apiece had been offered for tickets to Dr. Washington's lecture caused many present to regret they had changed their clothes.

The Sermon That Startled the World.

The above sermon, "The Production of a Genuine African," Dr. Mojola Agbebi, M. A., Ph. D., of Lagos, West Africa, which has caused considerable excitement, and occasioned much searchings of heart in Africa, Europe and America, can be obtained from "The Enterprise Publishing Co., 258 New Main Street, Yonkers, N. Y., at 25 cents per copy. Every Negro should read it. Send at once! Following are some of the many endorsements of this remarkable deliverance. No stamps accepted. Make postal note payable to the order of Enterprise Publishing Co.

From Rev. C. T. Walker, D. D., L. L. D., the Great Organizer and Race Leader, New York City.

I have read the Sermon. It is really a wonderful sermon. The exegesis is rich and learned and the English chaste and clean. I have learned some things from the book and I believe there are a great many preachers in this land who will learn many things from it too.

From Rev. W. P. Stevenson, D. D., L. L. D., (white) First Presbyterian Church. Yonkers-on-Hudson.

It is a unique sermon.

From Dr. Booker T. Washington, the Apostle of Industry, Founder of Tuskegee Institute.

I thank you for your kindness in sending me the copy of the sermon delivered by you last December in Africa. I have read it with pleasure and profit.
